News

A very Happy Easter to regular members of the congregation and our visitors, on this highlight of the Christian calendar. Please place flowers from your gardens in our Easter Cross. Parish Communion will include the Renewal of Baptism Vows and be followed by the chance to display decorated eggs and egg-rolling in Market Place. Chocolate eggs will be available at all services.

At 4.00pm St Chad's@4 will have an Easter focus with refreshments followed by a service at 4.30pm with craft, contemporary songs and teaching in an informal atmosphere.

A big thank you to all those who have decorated our church so beautifully for today. There is still a chance to contribute to the cost of Easter flowers on the plate at the back of church.

A reminder to our visitors that we no longer take round an offertory plate but you are welcome to contribute to the cost of our parish church. We have a plate at the back of church, along with a card machine near the door and gift-aid envelopes in the pews which allow taxpayers to enhance their gift by 25%.

The Church Electoral Roll is currently being drawn up and application forms are available in church, and must be returned to church, or to Mrs Jenny Aston, 17 Haworth Crescent Poulton – Le - Fylde FY6 7JG by May 4th.

The new Bible Reading Fellowship notes are available for collection and purchase. There are also UCB bible notes which are on offer free of charge.

On Wednesday at 2.00pm in Poulton Methodist Hall there will be a Mother's Union Meeting, open to anyone who is interested to come and hear the talk and presentation, "Come Fly with Jonathan" 115 years of flying with Manchester Airports by Jonathan Challis.

On Wednesday at 7.00pm we will have our Confirmation Rehearsal in St Chad's Church.

Next Sunday at 10.00am we will welcome Bishop Jill for our Confirmation Service at St Chad's. Please remember in your prayers Bishop Jill and our thirteen candidates; Albie, Peter, Rynelle, Oscar, James, Ella, Poppy, Macie, Harriet, Eliana, Georgia, Verity and Philip.
